

ANNOUNCEMENT

In regard to the Call to Artists for "Assemblaggi Provvisori" ("Provisional Assemblages"), the Jury, composed of Cecilia Bertoni, Michela Giovannelli, Marialucia Carones, Angel Moya Garcia, Antonio Caggiano and Luca Greco, notes

- that Art. 4 of the Call to Artists provided for the allocation of a budget for the projects selected by the Jury;
- that furthermore, Art. 7 also stipulated that the budgets assigned to each project would be announced by the 16 October 2015, at the same time as the announcement of the winners;
- that the itemised estimates of spending submitted by 5 September 2015 were so vague that the Jury was not able to divide the available funds between the winners using appropriate and fair criteria, requiring these budgets to be clearly itemised and developed by the Artists;
- that, so as not to frustrate the objective of the Call to Artists, it will not be possible to announce the spending budget assigned to each project by the deadline stated;
- that the projects selected for the competition can, however, be duly announced;

it has been decided to postpone the announcement of the budgets assigned to individual projects.

Subsequently, the holders of the winning projects will be informed of the criteria and deadlines for the preparation of the new spending budgets, which the participants are now asked to carefully, observe.
